

DAY AT THE MUSEUM SEPT. 25TH

OAKWOOD CEMETERY SCAVENGER HUNT & TRAIL WALK

Join the Weeping Water Valley Historical Society on Saturday, September 25th for a day of free, family-friendly events. The day kicks off the Cemetery Scavenger Hunt at the historic Oakwood Cemetery. Entrants can pick up official clue books at area locations then visit the cemetery and find the answers to the mysteries while learning intriguing history about some of Weeping Water's early residents. Enter as an individual, team, or family. Those who complete the hunt and return their entries by October 12th will be put into prize drawings. Oakwood Cemetery is one of the stops on the new Heritage Trail Walk, a 3.2-mile self-guided tour featuring 14 sites highlighting the history of Weeping Water.

NEBRASKA TERRITORY STORIES BY DAVID SEAY

At 11:00 am, bring lawn chairs or blankets and join us at the Heritage House Museum Complex at 300 West H Street where Humanities Nebraska speaker David Seay will present Nebraska Territory Stories. In this upbeat presentation, David performs folk music that existed at the time Nebraska became a state on March 1, 1867. Between tunes, he discusses how these songs provide glimpses into history by telling stories of the everyday life of pioneers during the 13 years before Nebraska statehood. There will be snacks available from Will Cover's historic chuckwagon and the Heritage House and Dr. Fate's office will be open for tours following the presentation. The program is sponsored by Humanities Nebraska, the Nebraska Cultural Endowment, and the Weeping Water Valley Historical Society.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Take a nostalgic stroll through the historic main street at Memory Lane Museum, 215 W Eldora, where the historical society is hosting an ice cream social from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

The Scavenger Hunt Clue Books will be available starting September 25th in Weeping Water at Memory Lane Museum, Drue's Kitchen, Express Lane, Stop N Shop, State Farm Insurance, and at Bloom Where You're Planted Farm near Avoca.
